MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel White
SUBJECT : In-Casual, Out-Casual Paper

1. Matt Baird called this morning, and in the interests of speed, conveyed his comments on the subject paper which you sent to him, to you through me. They are:

- a. He takes mild exception to paragraph A.1, which objection he says relates to his earlier non-concurrence in R [REDACTED]. Matt says that many OTR career designees serving with DD/P have been "bludgeoned" into accepting another career designation, and that unless he is on the distribution of the overseas returnee list, he will not be able to keep tabs on these people, whom he presumably would want to land for instructor duty again. He also feels that he should have a crack at the best DD/P returnees who have never served in OTR but who should be considered for such service. Unless he can keep up with the who and when of the returnee problem, he thinks his mission would be affected.

However, he does not think he needs a separate copy of the overseas returnee list - merely wants to have the AD/P copy forwarded to him when it has served its purpose in Personnel.
